Insulation as required in this design guide will prevent underlying soil from freezing. For all types of construction, heat loss through the floor of a building. Frost Protected Shallow Foundations are a Resource Efficient.